🔗 FORENSIC CORROBORATION ANALYSIS #80

8 May 2026

You Built a Bonfire For Me. You Burned Your Own House Down.

A viral motivational video addresses chosen ones who survived coordinated persecution — puppet masters, ring leaders, and group betrayal. Forensic Corroboration Analysis #80 maps every claim against Dr. McLean's 2,304 blockchain-verified primary source documents. The creator did not consult the archive. The archive did not consult the video. They arrived at an identical description of the same documented reality.

FORENSIC METHODOLOGY

Each claim extracted verbatim from the video is converted into a testable forensic proposition and examined against named primary-source evidence in the 2,304-document archive. The video's creator had no knowledge of the archive. The archive had no knowledge of this video. Convergence across complete mutual ignorance is the forensic finding.

PROPHETIC STATEMENT OF CORROBORATION

The Video Did Not Know the Archive.
The Archive Did Not Know the Video.

"You built a bonfire for me and burned your own house down."

This opening line is not poetry in the context of the Barran Dodger archive. It is a forensic description. The 13 agencies that coordinated against Dr. McLean over 35 years produced — in their own documentation — the precise evidence that now forms the basis of an International Criminal Court submission under Article 7 of the Rome Statute, a UNHCR asylum claim, a Federal Court whistleblower confirmation, and a formal court proceeding at Wyong Local Court (Receipt I88267509, 14 May 2026). They produced the archive themselves. Every clinical report, every financial management decision, every dismissed complaint, every letter from a minister's office is a primary source in the case against the conduct of the institution that created it. The bonfire they built is now the evidentiary record. Their house is the documentation.

What follows is not commentary. It is a forensic audit of seven claims. Verified against a record they cannot dispute without initiating the legal proceedings they have not initiated across 491,000+ global downloads.

PART TWO — DIRECT MESSAGE TO NAMED PROVEN PERPETRATORS

Quote This to Anyone Who Came For You.

"You built a bonfire for me and burned your own house down."

What follows is addressed directly to the named individuals and organisations whose documented conduct is preserved in the 2,304-exhibit Barran Dodger archive. Each name below is linked to primary-source evidence. Each legislative reference is specific and applicable. This is not commentary. This is a legally fortified notification delivered through a public record downloaded 491,000+ times and submitted to the International Criminal Court under Article 7 of the Rome Statute.

This section constitutes a formal public statement under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (Cth) s.10 — disclosures of information that the discloser believes tend to show one or more instances of wrongdoing. All persons named have had access to the archive for an extended period. None has initiated legal proceedings. None has produced a factual rebuttal.
