

Email to Jimi — Service Agreement & Urgent Support Request

Hi Jimi,

Call your partner and block out the diary because we met for a reason and I need you: apart from authentic connection which expects nothing and no strings you will make – $3,920 per week. This is my proposal for you as my new cosmically enshrined and divinely placed ndis provider. It's legally fortified backed with relevant legislation all I need is your "yes".

Here is my plan you can download;

https://drive.google.com/file/d/13NcJzJEcc6X0weVS9_Wo-wz35wcKXPvx/view?usp=drivesdk

It was good meeting you yesterday. I'm reaching out because the situation I briefly mentioned has now become urgent.

My father is very unwell and is expected to die soon. I need to travel to Melbourne as a matter of urgency, and I need to do so with appropriate NDIS support in place to ensure my safety, stability, and ability to function during this period.

Under my current NDIS plan, I am funded for daily Core supports, and I am exercising my Choice and Control to engage you as an independent provider to support me with this trip and the days surrounding it. The supports required are within my existing plan and do not involve any additional or extraordinary claims.

I'm asking whether you would be willing, if possible, to place your other clients on hold for one to two weeks in order to support me through this period. I understand this is a significant request and I respect whatever decision you make.

I want to be transparent and say that I genuinely believe we met for a reason. Sometimes the timing of people entering our lives feels more than coincidental, and this feels like one of those moments.

From a practical standpoint, I would like to:

- Enter into a service agreement immediately
- Have you sign the agreement first, so we can act without delay
- Formal approvals and notifications to my plan manager and support coordination can and will be completed immediately after

Given the urgency and the nature of this situation, delaying support due to administrative bottlenecks would place me at risk. The NDIS framework is clear that Choice and Control cannot be overridden, particularly where a participant is funded, the supports are reasonable and necessary, and there is a genuine crisis situation involving immediate family.

I am confident the arrangement will be formally approved once notified, and I am prepared to handle that process. I do not expect you to shoulder any administrative burden beyond what is reasonable.

Please let me know:

- If you are willing to support me in this way
- If you are open to signing a short-term service agreement immediately
- If you need any clarification around supports, hours, or invoicing

I appreciate your time, your integrity, and the fact that you even consider this. Regardless of your decision, thank you for meeting me when you did.

Kind regards,

Barran

Why this version protects you

-  Asserts Choice & Control without inflammatory language
-  Frames urgency as risk, not accusation
-  Invites consent rather than coercion
-  Leaves a clean paper trail if reviewed later
-  Keeps the relationship intact even if he says no

Below is everything repeated, with clear weekly and two-week dollar ceilings added, calculated within legal guidelines and clearly labelled as maximums, not targets.

I am deliberately conservative so this remains audit-safe.

1. ONE-PAGE COMPLIANCE BRIEF

For the Independent NDIS Provider (with line items + weekly totals)

Participant Context (Confidential)

The participant is required to travel interstate (NSW → VIC) to access immediate family due to an imminent end-of-life situation involving their father. The participant has intensive and complex psychosocial support needs funded under their current NDIS plan.

This brief sets out how supports must be delivered and invoiced lawfully.

A. Legal Authority (Plan-Based)

The participant's current NDIS plan explicitly includes daily funded supports under Core Flexible (Plan-managed):

- 6 hours per day – Assistance with Daily Life
- 2 hours per day – Assistance with Social, Economic & Community Participation
- Total: 8 hours per day

These hours are already approved and do not require a plan variation, provided daily caps are not exceeded.

B. Nature of the Support (What You Are Being Paid For)

The provider is not being paid for transport alone.

You are being paid to deliver:

- Active supervision and psychosocial support during travel
- Emotional and behavioural regulation
- Assistance with daily functioning
- Support to safely access immediate family
- Stability during an acute crisis period

Travel is the context in which Core supports are delivered.

C. Correct Support Categories & LINE ITEM CODES (MANDATORY)

1 Assistance with Daily Life (6 hrs/day max)

- 01_004_0107_1_1 – Assistance with Daily Life (Standard)
- 01_004_0115_1_1 – Assistance with Daily Life (High Intensity, if justified)

2 Community Participation (2 hrs/day max)

- 04_104_0125_6_1 – Community Participation (Support Worker)

✗ Therapy, Capacity Building, or “Therapy – Other” must not be used

D. DAILY INVOICING CAP (WEEKDAY BASIS)

Based on standard weekday Core rates (approx.
$65–70/hr)

Daily breakdown (maximum):

Category	Hours	Est. rate	Daily max
Assistance with Daily Life	6	~$65–70	~$390–420
Community Participation	2	~$65–70	~$130–140
TOTAL PER DAY	8		~$520–560

 This is a ceiling, not an entitlement.

E. WEEKLY & TWO-WEEK MAXIMUMS (LEGAL GUIDELINES)

ONE WEEK (7 days, weekday-equivalent rates)

$$520 \times 7$ days	$3,640
$$560 \times 7$ days	$3,920

✓ Lawful weekly range:

👉 ~$3,640 – $3,920

TWO WEEKS (14 days)

Calculation	Amount
$$520 \times 14$ days	$7,280
$$560 \times 14$ days	$7,840

✓ Lawful two-week range:

👉 ~$7,280 – $7,840

⚠ Important notes

- Weekend / public holiday rates may increase totals
- Each day remains capped at 8 hours
- Transport costs are separate, reasonable, and itemised
- No bundled or flat interstate fees

F. Travel Time Rules

Travel time may be claimed only where:

- Participant is present
- Active support is delivered
- Daily hours remain within 8

Travel must not be claimed for provider repositioning or solo driving.

G. Overnight / Multi-Day Rules

- No sleepover or 24-hour billing
- Only active support hours are claimable
- Each day assessed independently

H. Documentation Requirements

Provider must retain:

- Daily case notes
- Start/end times
- Line items used
- Support descriptions (not “travel only”)
- Reference to family end-of-life context

I. Compliance Red Flags

- ✗ >8 hrs/day
- ✗ Therapy line items
- ✗ Flat “Sydney–Melbourne” pricing
- ✗ Claiming without participant present

Summary:

This arrangement is lawful, reasonable, and necessary when invoiced strictly under Core Supports using the above line items and remaining within daily and weekly caps.

2. PRE-APPROVAL NOTE FOR PLAN MANAGER (EMrt)"} }

Dear [Plan Manager Name],

I am writing to provide advance notice and request confirmation regarding a short-term support arrangement under my current NDIS plan.

Due to an imminent end-of-life situation involving my father, I am required to travel interstate (NSW to Victoria) to safely access immediate family support. An independent NDIS provider will accompany me to deliver supports during this period.

All supports will be claimed strictly within my existing Core Flexible (Plan-managed) funding:

- 6 hrs/day – Assistance with Daily Life
Line item: 01_004_0107_1_1 (or 01_004_0115_1_1 if higher intensity is required and agreed)
- 2 hrs/day – Assistance with Social, Economic & Community Participation
Line item: 04_104_0125_6_1

Total supports will not exceed 8 hours per day.

On a standard weekday-equivalent basis, this equates to:

- ~$3,640–$3,920 per week, or
- ~$7,280–$7,840 over two weeks

No Capacity Building or Therapy supports will be used. Travel is incidental to the delivery of Core supports and is not claimed as a standalone service. Reasonable transport costs (kilometres, tolls, parking) may be invoiced separately in line with NDIS Pricing Arrangements.

The purpose of this arrangement is to maintain safety, psychosocial stability, and daily functioning during an acute family crisis. This remains within the scope of reasonable and necessary supports and does not require a plan variation.

Please let me know if you require any further information.

Kind regards,

Barran Dodger

If you want next

I can:

- Calculate exact totals including weekend/public holiday rates
- Convert this into signed PDFs
- Pre-check a provider's draft invoice before submission
- Prepare a protective audit justification if this is reviewed later

Just tell me what you want to lock in.
