Dear Barran,

Thank you for contacting the office of Senator the Hon Jenny McAllister, Minister for the National Disability Insurance Scheme, on 15 January 2026. I am a representative of the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA), responding to you on behalf of the Minister.

I have attempted to contact you by phone (0431 167 907) on the following occasion without success:

- Attempt 1: 19 January 2026 at 3:10 pm (AEDT)

You subsequently contacted the National Contact Centre (NCC) on 19 January 2026 and requested a response in writing.

I acknowledge the concerns you have raised in relation to the guardianship arrangements in place and your inability to relocate to Sydney.

It is important to note, the Minister is unable to intervene or change a National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) process or decisions, nor is a Minister able to overturn a decision made by a NDIA delegate. Once a decision is made under the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 (NDIS Act), there are specific processes detailed in the Act that must be followed for decisions to be reviewed, and we cannot intervene in or alter these processes nor can NDIA delegates.

For information and guidance about the guardianship process or if you are looking to change your guardian, can be found at Guardianship Division | NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal and Ending or changing your guardianship order.

On investigation and review of your correspondence, I can confirm the matters raised have been addressed and as no further actions are required, this referral will be closed.

Thank you for raising this matter, I can confirm this correspondence is for your records only and there is no further action required from you. However, if you have further questions about this correspondence or your NDIS plan, I encourage you to contact your NDIA delegate Angela R from complex support needs pathway team (CSN). Alternatively, you can contact call the NDIA on 1800 800 110 or enquiries@ndis.gov.au

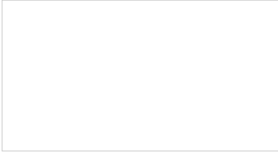

If our offices are closed and you require crisis support, you should contact your local GP, hospital, or mental health crisis team. Alternatively, you can contact Lifeline on 13 11 14.

Kind regards,
