How is the funding in your plan organised?

Total funding amount

Your total funding amount is the total amount for all reasonable and necessary supports funded in your plan.

Funding component amount

Your funding component amount is the funding amount you have in your plan for a specific support, or a group of reasonable and necessary supports. We call these supports a funding component in your plan. We use support categories to describe the reasonable and necessary supports in each funding component.

Funding period

A funding period is the time that a part of your funding is available and how long it needs to last. You can spend up to the amount of funding available in that time. Funding periods can be for either the total amount of funding in your plan, or for a specific support type.

At the end of each funding period, any funds you haven't spent will rollover into your next funding period in the same plan. This means the funding you haven't used will be added to your new funding period. However, your funds will only rollover during the same plan.

To find out more, visit the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au). Search for Our Guidelines, select Operational Guidelines, then select Your Plan.

Managing your NDIS funding

Registered plan manager

Your plan has plan-managed funded supports. This means a registered plan manager will help you to manage your NDIS funds. There is funding in your plan to pay for a registered plan manager. They will pay your providers for you.

To learn more, search for and select Plan management on the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au).

Agency-managed

Your plan has agency-managed funded supports This means we will pay your providers on your behalf or for your nominee. You must use registered providers for agency-managed funded supports.

To learn more, search for and select NDIA-managed funding on the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au).

NDIS supports

NDIS laws say what we can and can't fund. The things we can fund are called NDIS supports. NDIS supports are the services, items and equipment that can be funded by the NDIS. You can only use the funding in your plan to buy NDIS supports if they are related to your disability and are in line with your plan.

To find out more about the NDIS supports lists, visit the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au). Search for and select Would we fund it, select the Would we fund it guide, then select What does NDIS fund?

Using your plan to buy NDIS supports

You choose the providers you want to work with. It's important to find the right providers to meet your disability needs and help you pursue your goals.

To find out more, visit the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au). Search for Providers and select Working with providers.

The amount of funding you can claim depends on how you manage the funding in your plan. There are different ways to manage your funding.

If your funding is:

- Agency-managed: Registered NDIS providers can claim up to the maximum price in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits for each NDIS support.
- Managed by a registered plan manager: Your plan manager can claim up to the maximum price in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits for each NDIS support.
- Self-managed: You can choose how much to pay for each NDIS support and you can pay more than the maximum price in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

You can always claim less than the prices in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits – it doesn't matter how your funding is managed. For example, your provider may charge lower rates, which often means you can get more support from your funding.

If an NDIS support isn't in the NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits, you'll need to agree on a price with the provider.

You or the person managing your plan need to make sure you're only spending the funding that's available in your plan. If your plan has funding periods, you won't be able to claim a support if it would mean you've spent more than the funding you have available in this funding period for the funding component amount.

You need to make sure your funding will last for the whole length of your plan, in line with any funding periods and funding component amounts. You also need to make sure claim details are correct.

To find out more, visit the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au). Select For providers, Pricing arrangements, then NDIS Pricing Arrangements and Price Limits.

How different types of supports are paid

Most of the time the supports in your plan will be a standard claimable support. This is unless a support is listed as 'recurring', 'direct commissioning' or 'in-kind'.

Recurring supports

If a support in your plan is listed as 'recurring', it will be paid regularly into your nominated bank account. You don't need to make a claim.

Direct Commissioning supports

If a support in the plan is listed as 'direct commissioning', it means we've arranged a registered provider to deliver this support to you. We'll pay the provider directly for the supports you receive. This support's funding won't show in your plan's total funding amount. You don't need to use your NDIS plan funds to pay for this support.

You must use the provider named in your plan. You can choose to change this by contacting your my NDIS contact.

In-kind supports

If a support is listed as 'in-kind' in your plan, we've pre-paid this provider to deliver this service. In-kind programs are Agency-managed. This support's funding won't show in your plan's total funding amount. You don't need to use your NDIS plan funds to pay for this support.

You must use the provider named in your plan. If you're concerned about using this provider, you can talk with your my NDIS contact.

Protect your plan

What is fraud?

We know most people are honest and do the right thing. Sometimes people choose to do the wrong thing with NDIS funds. This is called fraud.

Fraud is a crime. Fraud happens when someone is dishonest on purpose to benefit themselves or others. The NDIA and the Government have no tolerance for fraud against the NDIS and its participants.

The ways a person may commit fraud against the NDIA might include:

- dishonestly getting and using NDIA information or restricted data
- giving false or misleading information
- using fake documents or invoices
- claiming for services or products not provided
- misusing NDIS funds.

What to look out for

People might commit fraud in different ways. Some of the things they might do include:

- asking to look at your NDIS plan, if you don't know them or have not given your consent to share your plan with them
- pretending to work for the NDIA
- asking for details about your plan or some of your personal information
- claiming or offering you services or products that are not in line with, or not included in, your plan.

How you can protect your plan

Some of the things you can do to protect your plan are:

- asking your plan manager or provider questions about the support they're providing

- checking the NDIS supports they're providing are affordable and in line with your plan, its funding component amounts and funding periods
- keeping accurate and complete records of the NDIS supports you pay for with your NDIS funds
- not talking about your plan or personal information with someone you don't know
- understanding who you have given consent to and what they can do on your behalf.

You can also talk to your my NDIS contact for advice and support on protecting your plan against fraud.

We understand that mistakes can happen. For help to fix a mistake, you can:

- speak to your my NDIS contact
- call our National Contact Centre on 1800 800 110.

How to report fraud

If you think someone is doing the wrong thing with NDIS funds, you can report it by:

- calling the NDIS Fraud Reporting and Scams Helpline on 1800 650 717
- calling the NDIS Commission on 1800 035 544
- filling in a complaint contact form on the NDIS Commission website (ndiscommission.gov.au)
- filling in our online tip-off form. You can find it on the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au). Search for and select Report suspicious behaviour. Then select Online tip-off form.

NDIS glossary

You can find common NDIS words and what they mean in the NDIS glossary.

Go to the NDIS website (ndis.gov.au), search for and select Glossary.
