

12 March 2021

Dr Rich McLean
2 Mccubbin Street
Footscray VIC 3011

Dear Dr McLean

Case numbers 700088 (Media Super)
747026 (AustralianSuper) & 767480 (TAL Life)
758027 (Bendigo and Adelaide Bank)
785105 (HCF Life Insurance)
789651 (AAI Limited)

I refer to my letter to you dated 2 March 2021.

Regrettably we have closed your complaints

In that letter, I asked for your written commitment by 9 March 2021 that you will not name AFCA case workers on your website. This is because your threat to do so was inconsistent with the consent you provided to AFCA to consider your complaints.

It is disappointing that you have not provided the written commitment by the due date. Given we have not received the commitment, we have closed the following complaints:

- 700088 (Media Super)
- 747026 (AustralianSuper) & 767480 (TAL Life)
- 758027 (Bendigo and Adelaide Bank)
- 785105 (HCF Life Insurance)

This means we will take no further action on the complaints.

It also means until we receive the requested commitment, we will not accept any new complaints against other financial firms. Accordingly, we have also closed case 789651, lodged against AAI Limited today.

We remain open to helping you if written commitment is received

As outlined in my earlier letter, I appreciate the serious consequences of the cases being closed.

We remain open to dealing with the matters you raised in the complaints once your written confirmation is received.

As I will be on annual leave from today until Wednesday 7 April 2021, you may provide your written commitment in my absence by emailing info@afca.org.au and quoting case number 747026 in the subject line.

Additionally, a reminder that you may wish to:

- appoint a representative to deal with your complaints at AFCA, such as a family member or friend
- connect with community-based organisations which offer a wide range of services which are free, confidential and independent.

Further details of these services are noted at the end of my 2 March 2021 letter. For clarity, while we will work with your appointed representative, this will be once we have received your written commitment that you will not name AFCA case workers on your website.

Yours sincerely
