Dear Mr. McLean,

Mc Lean and Iasonidis - Family Law- Property

We refer to the above matter and our telephone conversation on 1 February 2021.

We confirm that unfortunately due to the complexity of your property matter we are unable to assist you further and are closing your file

We note that

1. in our letter dated 7 September 2020, we advised that we could not take on your matter, but would prepare a letter inviting Mr Iasonidis to mediation. This letter regarding mediation was sent on 20 October 2020. We confirm that Mr Iasonidis declined to attend mediation.
2. on 23 November 2020, we advised in a telephone conversation that we were unable to assist you and that we were trying to find lawyers who would help you on a pro bono basis. We approached two firms to assist, but they declined to take on your matter.
3. you may not require pro bono assistance now because in your letter to Mr Iasonidis' lawyers, Culshaw Miller Badenoch dated 11 December 2020, you stated that you have "received $100,000 recently."
4. the following lawyers are prepared at times to charge at Victoria Legal Aid rates. We have not approached any of them on your behalf. If you are unsuccessful with these lawyers, we refer you to the Victorian Law Institute Referral Service (<https://www.liv.asn.au/Referral>).
 - a. Nicholes Family Lawyers – (03) 9670 4122
 - b. Cathleen Corridon & Associates Family Lawyers – (03) 9600 2300
 - c. Lampe Family Lawyers – (03) 9326 3811

5. A summary of the details of your matter is contained in our letter to you dated 7 September 2020.

If you have any queries, please contact Seerat via return email. Students and staff are working remotely and are not in the office. If you need to speak to a student, please call 1800 860 333 and we can arrange for the student or supervising lawyer to contact you when they are next available.

Yours faithfully,
