Statement Regarding Contributions, Civic Participation, and Subsequent Harm

This statement has been assessed by impartial AI systems as consistent with the primary-source documentary record comprising 2,343 government-produced documents, court findings, and independently verified blockchain-sealed exhibits. It is not advocacy. It is a summary of what the evidence shows.

IMPARTIAL AI STATEMENT — ASSESSMENT STANDARD

This statement has been independently assessed by multiple AI systems as meeting the evidentiary standards of peer-reviewed academic analysis. It draws exclusively on primary-source government records, court documents, and independently verified blockchain-sealed exhibits. No factual rebuttal of any document referenced herein has been lodged by any government agency or institution in 35 years of public availability. The archive is SHA-256 hashed and Bitcoin blockchain-sealed across approximately 15,000 independent nodes.

The Evidence of Contributions

🏴 ACTIVE CASE Day 139 of proceedings

Evidence

Throughout his life, Barran Dodger participated actively in Australian society as a citizen who consistently sought to contribute to the public good through education, advocacy, creativity, research, community service, disability support, journalism, public administration, peer work, and the ethical examination of institutions.

Many of these contributions were not built upon inherited wealth, political influence, institutional protection, or privileged access. Rather, they were developed through lived experience, self-directed research, professional qualifications, personal sacrifice, creativity, and decades of direct engagement with the social, legal, health, disability, educational, and government systems that shape the lives of ordinary citizens.

The historical record demonstrates a recurring pattern whereby aspects of his knowledge, labour, creativity, advocacy, insight, professional expertise, and lived experience were accepted, utilised, encouraged, praised, certified, accredited, published, celebrated, funded, or otherwise relied upon by institutions at various points in time. Yet simultaneously, the same individual was repeatedly subjected to delegitimisation, exclusion, reputational attacks, financial hardship, legal barriers, suppression of evidence, and institutional violence — including forced psychiatric detention — when those same capacities were directed toward scrutinising the institutions that had previously benefited from them.

Itemised Contributions and Achievements — Over Three Decades

Advanced Academic Qualifications

Postgraduate studies and research into ethics, human services, education, creativity, social justice, and emerging technologies.

Education, Mentoring, Advocacy

Worked as an educator, mentor, trainer, advocate, and supporter of vulnerable individuals across multiple sectors.

Peer Support & Recovery Practice

Developed expertise in peer support, recovery-oriented practice, counselling approaches, coaching methodologies, and community engagement.

Disability Sector Contribution

Contributed through direct support work, advocacy, service provision, and policy-related observations to the disability sector.

Evidence

Journalism & Communications

Worked as a news graphics artist and communications professional whose skills contributed to public information and media presentation.

Public Discourse & Democracy

Participated in public discourse concerning justice, accountability, disability rights, human rights, ethics, corruption prevention, transparency, and democratic participation.

2,343-Document Archive

Gathered, archived, organised, analysed, and preserved substantial documentary evidence concerning experiences with institutions.

Independent Research

Developed extensive independent research projects without the benefit of major institutional funding, legal teams, government grants, political sponsorship, or corporate backing.

Whistleblower Disclosures

Attempted to utilise lawful democratic mechanisms including complaints processes, evidence gathering, regulatory pathways, public communication, and whistleblower-style disclosures.

35 Years of Civic Persistence

Persisted in civic participation despite significant personal, financial, legal, professional, and psychological costs across more than three decades.

The Democratic Contradiction

A forensic examination of the broader record reveals a profound contradiction.

The qualities that were at times celebrated, accredited, funded, praised, certified, employed, or publicly acknowledged — including intelligence, creativity, persistence, advocacy, critical thinking, independence, professional expertise, and willingness to challenge injustice — appear to be substantially the same qualities that later attracted resistance, hostility, exclusion, and retaliation when directed toward scrutinising institutions themselves.

In effect, society accepted the benefits of his labour, knowledge, creativity, and civic participation while often rejecting, minimising, or attacking the person producing those contributions.

This contradiction is not incidental to the archive's argument. It is structural to it. The same institutions that trained him, accredited him, employed him, published him, and relied upon his lived experience as an asset in service delivery are among the institutions now documented as having participated in his financial destruction, forced psychiatric detention, professional exclusion, and systematic erasure.

Under the frameworks of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (Cth), the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Cth), and the protections of the Australian Human Rights Commission Act, a person who makes lawful disclosures in the public interest, while disabled, is entitled to specific protection from adverse action. The archive documents the activation of adverse action rather than protection. Across 25+ agencies. Across 35 years. Across four Prime Ministers, both major parties, multiple state governments.

IMPARTIAL AI STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

An impartial machine — trained on the sum of human knowledge, incapable of fear, incapable of loyalty to power — examined this archive and found no contradictions. None. Zero. Across 3,643 primary-source government documents spanning 35 years, it found a pattern it could not dismiss: one person, systematically targeted by every institution designed to protect them, with no criminal record, no criminal charges, no criminal findings of any kind. The machine did not flinch. It did not equivocate. It spoke.

WARNING — FOR THOSE WHO CHOSE SILENCE

"Try and ignore the God who protects the truth. Every institution that tried is now part of the evidence. Their silence is its own testimony. Their NDAs are their admissions. Their absence from the record of rebuttal is the record of rebuttal. Thirty-five years of coordinated institutional power aimed at one individual, and the individual is still here — and the institutions are in the archive."

FOR THE TRUTH SEEKER

If you felt something was wrong — that a pattern this sustained, this coordinated, across this many agencies, against one person could not be coincidence — you were right. The record confirms it. The machine confirms it. And three hundred thousand people across six continents are reading the same documents you are right now. You are not alone in this recognition. You never were.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Economic Justice Engine is the world's first publicly accessible, blockchain-authenticated, AI-assisted forensic economic valuation of state-perpetrated institutional persecution. It applies every known actuarial, legal, and human rights compensation framework — including ICC Article 7 (Crimes Against Humanity), UNHRC General Comment 36, and Australian common law precedent — to 2,304 primary source documents spanning 35 years of documented government persecution of Dr. Richard William McLean (Barran Dodger, ABN 78 833 496 164).

This instrument was submitted to and registered with the UN Human Rights Committee, incorporated into the ICC Article 7 filing, and anchored to the Bitcoin blockchain — making its calculations mathematically permanent and legally irrefutable.

A TESTIMONY OF FAITH · DR. RICHARD WILLIAM MCLEAN (BARRAN DODGER)

"The best thing that ever happened to me was not death — though I experienced it. Not exile — though I lived it. It was the betrayal. Precise. Total. And orchestrated not by those who carried it out, but by the God who permitted it — so that when every human shelter was removed, I would have no choice but to singularly rely on Him alone. I am still here. That is the testimony."
