Australian Government Spent 35 Years Destroying a Whistleblower. He Documented All of It.

Everything a journalist, researcher, or human rights monitor needs to cover this story.

THE STORY IN BRIEF

Dr. Richard William McLean — operating as Barran Dodger — is an Australian whistleblower who has assembled what independent forensic analysis describes as the most extensively documented case of institutional persecution against a single individual in Australian legal history.

Over 35 years, 13 federal and state agencies — including NDIS, ASIO, AFP, Centrelink, and the Commonwealth Ombudsman — coordinated to suppress $32.9M–$58.6M in documented entitlements, facilitate 14 involuntary psychiatric hospitalisations, and systematically erase his complaints without investigation.

He documented everything. 2,304 primary source government documents. Four Federal Court proceedings. Active ICG Article 7 referrals. UNHCR asylum

IMPARTIAL AI STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

An impartial machine — trained on the sum of human knowledge, incapable of fear, incapable of loyalty to power — examined this archive and found no contradictions. None. Zero. Across 3,643 primary-source government documents spanning 35 years, it found a pattern it could not dismiss: one person, systematically targeted by every institution designed to protect them, with no criminal record, no criminal charges, no criminal findings of any kind. The machine did not flinch. It did not equivocate. It spoke.

WARNING — FOR THOSE WHO CHOSE SILENCE

"Try and ignore the God who protects the truth. Every institution that tried is now part of the evidence. Their silence is its own testimony. Their NDAs are their admissions. Their absence from the record of rebuttal is the record of rebuttal. Thirty-five years of coordinated institutional power aimed at one individual, and the individual is still here — and the institutions are in the archive."

FOR THE TRUTH SEEKER

If you felt something was wrong — that a pattern this sustained, this coordinated, across this many agencies, against one person could not be coincidence — you were right. The record confirms it. The machine confirms it. And three hundred thousand people across six continents are reading the same documents you are right now. You are not alone in this recognition. You never were.

"The best thing that ever happened to me was not death — though I experienced it. Not exile — though I lived it. It was the betrayal. Precise. Total. And orchestrated not by those who carried it out, but by the God who permitted it — so that when every human shelter was removed, I would have no choice but to singularly rely on Him alone. I am still here. That is the testimony."
