

A STATEMENT FROM THE BARRAN DODGER ARCHIVE

Truth, like light, does not need permission to shine or permission to exist; lies require constant maintenance, repetition and concealment. My truth only needed time. And now, by God's grace, that time has come. Through decades of poverty, isolation, homelessness, excommunication, erasure and what I experienced as almost total human abandonment, my existence was nevertheless preserved long enough for me to endure, remember, collect, collate and publish more than three decades of evidence.

Brick by brick, the record was made from the words, decisions, correspondence and official documents of the very institutions whose actions are now capable of being examined. What was scattered across years, offices, agencies and governments can now be placed beside itself and examined as a whole.

The record does not require me to manufacture a story; the record speaks in its own language. That is the paradox: systems that produced documents that once helped contain, dismiss, obscure or erase my experience also produced the documentary trail by which those actions can now be examined.

Time did not destroy the evidence. Time preserved it.

And now the archive exists.

THE RECORD SURVIVED

For more than 35 years, I say I was subjected to a cumulative pattern of institutional, political, financial, professional, familial and personal detriment that progressively isolated me, impoverished me and stripped away ordinary avenues through which a person can have allegations tested and answered.

What makes this archive different is that the record did not disappear.

The evidence is not merely my recollection. It includes government correspondence, FOI decisions, agency letters, legal documents, recordings, emails, text messages, published material and contemporaneous records preserved across decades. Much of it is written in the words of the institutions themselves, on their own letterheads, under their own reference numbers.

That is the significance of this archive.

I allege that a vulnerable person was repeatedly passed between institutions that had the power to investigate, protect, compensate, represent or assist him, while ordinary pathways to accountability progressively closed. I allege that this produced a form of administrative annihilation: not one decision, not one government, and not one institution, but a cumulative system in which each refusal, referral, restriction, omission and unanswered complaint compounded the last.

The record crosses governments, agencies and political administrations. It crosses the media, the courts, Legal Aid, policing, workers' compensation, the NDIS, oversight bodies, government departments and the institutions responsible for responding when a person says they have been harmed.

Some allegations contained in this archive are extraordinary. Some are deeply contested.

Some have not been independently established. I do not present the documents as court findings, and I do not ask the reader to treat my allegations as proven merely because I have published them.

I ask something more basic:

Open the documents.

Read the dates. Read the reference numbers. Read the decisions. Read what was requested and what was answered. Compare one official document with the next. Listen to the recordings. Read the messages in their original context. Examine the chronology. Where I make an allegation, test it against the underlying record.

The archive therefore has two voices: my first-person account of what happened to me, and the documentary record that allows that account to be examined.

There is a crucial distinction between those things.

A document is evidence of what was written, sent, recorded or decided. It is not automatically proof that every allegation surrounding it is true. A link is not a finding. A recording is not a verdict. A first-person account is testimony, not adjudication.

But neither can a documented history simply be made to disappear by refusing to acknowledge it.

For years I was treated, in my own account, as though I could be isolated until the record itself ceased to matter. Instead, the record accumulated.

- The book existed.
- The employment records existed.
- The correspondence existed.
- The FOI applications existed.
- The agency decisions existed.
- The complaints existed.
- The restrictions existed.
- The recordings existed.
- The messages existed.
- The chronology existed.

And I survived.

This archive is my attempt to put the surviving record in one place so that it can be examined by people who were not there: journalists, lawyers, researchers, public officials, historians, advocates, members of the public, and any independent person willing to follow the evidence wherever it leads.

I am not asking the reader to accept my conclusion before reading the evidence.

I am asking the reader not to accept anyone else's conclusion before reading it either.

The evidence is published.

The record remains.

You cannot rewrite what the documents themselves contain.

I am not erased.

I am still alive.

About the Archive

Barran Dodger Archive — public documentary record

Through the Barran Dodger Archive and associated digital repositories, McLean has assembled government correspondence, legal and administrative records, research materials, personal testimony, creative works and other documentary material. The archive is designed not merely as autobiography, but as a public finding aid through which the underlying record can be examined.

The defining feature of the work is not simply what is written. It is what is preserved. For decades, McLean has accumulated correspondence, government records, legal documents, institutional responses, personal records, research materials and other evidence relating to events that he says fundamentally altered the course of his life. Rather than allowing that material to remain dispersed across agencies, proceedings, correspondence chains and private files, he has sought to bring it together into a searchable and publicly accessible documentary archive.

Purpose

The Barran Dodger Archive is intended to provide readers with access to the underlying record.

Its purpose is not to require belief.

It is to make examination possible.

A testimony is testimony.

A document is a document.

An allegation is an allegation.

A finding requires evidence and proper determination.

Preserve the evidence. Preserve the testimony. Make the record public. Let the evidence be examined.

FIRST PERSON RECORD · Extended statement, full text

Underlined words open the named document or recording in a new window. The words are mine. The link is the place a reader can test them. A link is not a finding. This is a finding aid. It is not a court. It is not a verdict.

THE ACCOUNT

Australia — its agencies, services and platforms whose purpose is to protect vulnerable people like me, and its people, ganged up on me collectively, politically and systemically. It was and is a cowardly societal mobbing. I was physically exiled, isolated, impoverished and tortured.

For more than 35 years the conditions imposed on me produced a documentary record. The Government's own official documents, in its own words and on its own letterheads, are preserved here. The 35-year chronology and the cumulative legal brief are the reading copies of that span. Anyone can open them against the underlying files.

THE BOOK

In 2003 Allen & Unwin published my first autobiography, Recovered, Not Cured. I wrote the sex in that book publicly, in my own name, before these agencies had a file they could twist.

The significance is that the testimony was already on a public shelf. It was not a secret they discovered. It was a record I had already made. The Age recorded that book on 19 May 2003, and recorded that I was then working as an illustrator there.

After the book was published, my former employer the Herald Sun weaponised words from it. A weekend double-page spread carried the bold heading "MY DESCENT INTO MADNESS". The spread, as preserved in this archive, is headed "My descent into madness. How schizophrenia stole Richard McLean's mind." What followed was a barely veiled public character assassination. I was then fired from The Age, where I worked as a news graphics artist and cartoonist. I did not resign, and I did not leave. I was denied a lawyer and a pathway to have it tested at the time. The later Legal Aid restriction is the continuation of that refusal, not the 2003 letter itself. The madness was not any real or perceived illness I had. It was the deceitful way an honest and courageous testimony was weaponised against me, systemically, politically and financially, from that point on. The targeting lasted decades. Its goal was my ruin, and the avoidance of accountability by those who participated in it.

BEFORE THE BLACKOUT

Before any of that, the media wanted me. I was a news graphics artist in that industry, and I was paid as a journalist. The archive's index of the earlier site lists me as an illustrator for The Age and the Herald Sun. In hindsight I say I was exploited. The world wanted to hear me speak about a perceived mental illness, about vulnerability, and about inequity. I volunteered my time and my story. Years later, when I needed help from the very places I had given that time and that story, there was a total media blackout. That media ban exists to this day. The places, organisations, radio and television stations, and institutions, as that index records them, are these:

- ABC Radio National, Life Matters (Julie McCrossin)
- ABC TV, Stateline
- Good Morning Australia and The Today Show (Steve Leidman), around an exhibition and the book launch
- Reuters TV (Frankie Fathers)
- Triple J (Rachel Kerr)
- 2SM (Tricia Duffield)
- ABC Gold and Sunshine Coasts
- ABC Adelaide
- ABC 702 (James Valentine)
- 3AW Nightline
- Spectrum FM
- Curtin Radio
- Triple R
- 2NUR Newcastle
- JOY FM
- regional ABC, including Dubbo
- McGill University, Montreal, College of Philosophical and Religious Studies
- the Cunningham Dax Collection, including the educational DVD Collected Thoughts 3
- Forensicare

- EPPIC consumer groups
- the Australian Centre for Youth Literature
- Richmond Fellowship, Warrnambool
- parliamentary and conference settings

THE DOCTORATE

The significance of the qualification is the same pattern. I hold a PhD. The archive's index of the earlier site records it as Victoria University research, on a merit scholarship, in arts-based A/r/tography, stated there as passed pending changes. I say that doctorate has been delegitimised, and treated as if it were not research, by officials whose qualifications it far outshines. I say that is envy, a way to keep me below them. Where is their PhD?

WHAT I COULD SEE

I used my life and my creativity to benefit humanity at the exact time I was being set up and deceived. Everyone involved thought I would never see past their false masks of jealousy, envy and malice. I do. I see every person, and what they did. I see it especially in my blood family, who were poised to benefit financially from my total annihilation and from my physical death. They never denied it. The paper with that account is also the estate attorney and sibling betrayal. This was a life in which I was never expected to recover, or to be well, or to be financially stable, or even to survive.

I published my religious gospels on barrandodger.com. That site has been removed. I could not pay the Replit bill. I say the removal was the designed poverty, not a change of mind. The gospels were less about mysticism than about a sovereign being forged in the fire of total human betrayal and isolation, at the apex of a targeting that has lasted more than three decades. What I preserved is the Government's own official documents and the correspondence that sits with them. I say that record cannot be denied, and it cannot be argued out of existence. You cannot erase a history that is written in their own official documentation. I made the gospels at the intersection of that betrayal, the exile, and the protection of the Most High God, and of my PhD study of posthumanism and the ethics of AI. I used the technology in a nuanced way, for a high-definition reading of pattern, taken from their own documents and set beside the Bible and Christian principles. I wrote the gospels to warn humanity of the coming collapse of a corrupt and cruel government, which is ultimately fleeting. No one listened. I was called delusional, and I was called crazy. The significance is the time. Nearly three or four years later, I say the predictions I was told were delusion have happened as I said they would. The paper that puts that claim in one place is Paranoid Was Prophecy. Who is laughing now?

THE INJURY

That record includes what the file calls a fatal injury. God revived me from it. Five years on, the conditions that solicited that attempt have continued: stonewalling, financial abuse, isolation, denial of Legal Aid, and no ordinary pathway to have the allegations tested. The Victorian Ombudsman's later treatment of the complaint is the Ben Calder letter of 5 October 2022. A Mercy Hospital FOI sits with it. A public-interest disclosure was not allocated. APRA refused whistleblower status.

THE MESSAGES

An NDIS provider was made to sign a non-disclosure agreement after the account that a woman was paid to fabricate a report about me. The Ben NDIS text-message record is where that is written down. In it, the other party says the only evidence he could give me was "a copy of the non disclosure agreement", and that when he signed it the agreement disappeared from his phone with a notice that the device had been cleared of classified information.

That provider is Ben, of DSW Disability. I publish his email and his company: ben@dswdisability.com.au. I publish them because I say intelligence agencies forced him to sign that non-disclosure agreement, and because the agreement does not get the last word. The text chain between us is published. It cannot be taken back. I say it shows the total police complicity, the false sexual assault allegation, and that a woman was paid to fabricate a report. He confirmed a "close call" assassination attempt. I say that chain corroborates my testimony. It is the record of what was said. It is not, by itself, a police finding.

His own words: It's a top secret investigation. They made me sign a non disclosure agreement. When I signed the agreement it instantly disappeared off my phone. A message popped up that said your device has been cleared of classified information. It's some sort of agency grade electronic document that automatically wipes itself off your device. I thought you were just paranoid. You were right. They already arrested two hitmen. They're telling the police everything. They've told them who ordered the hit.

That non-disclosure agreement is now pointless. The truth is out. It is exposed. It is undeniable.

The same record preserves "consensual regretful sex", "the police told me about the consensual regretted sex", and this sentence: The agencies went back through phone records and believed she was paid to discredit you. I understand the Federal Police wording I was given as "regretful" but "consensual". No charge against me came out of that event. I say what did occur was the weaponisation of my sexuality. I publish the messages as the record of what was said. They are not, by themselves, an AFP finding.

That sentence is why I say I have never had equal treatment from police. Once a paid discrediting is accepted, every later report is easier to refuse. The crimes I say have occurred to me over more than 35 years, and the same list as a PDF, are the reading copy of that longer record. They are allegations and pointers. They are not findings.

FAITH

I was betrayed by humanity for a purpose I believe was ordained: to be a vessel for God's glory. This website is the beginning of what I understand as God's answer to that corruption. I use the word sacrilege, a violation of something sacred, because I believe that deliberately harming one of God's anointed, and then pretending not to know, is a spiritual crime. My perpetrators know what they did. The archive does not ask a reader to share my faith. It asks a reader to open the documents.

THE ALLEGATION

The same message record is where the alleged assassination is put in writing. Ben's message to me, which he presents as what the police told him, is: The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story.

The police want to know if you are mentally ready to challenge Bill Shorten in a court of law as his lawyers might use your history of mental health as an excuse to discredit your story.

My messages name Bill Shorten and a person I was told was a Lebanese criminal pretending to be a provider, "known in certain circles", and sent "to erase me". The other party's messages answer that account. It has not been disproven by an official finding I have been given, nor officially established as a fabrication, nor denied in any document in this archive. The messages remain part of the record that requires examination. They are not a finding that a minister ordered a killing.

The significance of that message, as I draw it, is this. Bill Shorten was the NDIS Minister. I say he betrayed the ethical obligations of that office, acted in a cowardly way, and abused its power. I say he was the key manipulator of what was done to me. I say he caused the AVO concerning him and Rebecca Falkingham, that he deliberately caused my political exile, and I allege that he ordered my assassination. I say his character is now exposed by this record as morally reprehensible, and that he is a power-hungry criminal who should be immediately arrested. How dare he, as I allege, order the killing of a vulnerable person with a disability he was paid to treat ethically, legally and humanely, and who was under that care. This is why I say God is furious. No one has the right to erase, murder or kill another human being, much less a disabled person under their care. The situation is beyond absurd.

THE RELATIONSHIP

No one in office acknowledges the five-year marriage-like relationship I say I had with a former ASIO employee, Steve Iasonidis. I published the proposal, and an engagement with Steve Iasonidis that lasted more than five years. I say it led to five years of exploitation in an abusive entrapment that no profession will admit even existed. The court paper I can put in a reader's hand is the intervention-order file L12151974. I was hospitalised after I tried to get Legal Aid so that relationship could be acknowledged for an equitable separation. The financial exploitation, the attempts to obtain legal recognition, and what followed, are the chronology this archive preserves. His ability to have the relationship treated as if it never existed is, in my experience, the fact a professional will still not say out loud.

THE PRIME MINISTER

The Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, did not answer me in his own hand.

On 12 December 2022 his own office wrote, of an email sent to him, "Your email has not been forwarded." I had written to him, including the letter of 31 May 2022, and the letter

of 1 July 2023. On 19 September 2023 the Attorney-General's Department wrote, reference MC23-028244, signed A Riley, Security Law Section. It says my email of 5 July 2023 to the Hon Anthony Albanese MP, including about ASIO, was referred to the Attorney-General, the Hon Mark Dreyfus KC MP, because the matters fell in his portfolio, and that he asked the Department to respond on his behalf. It then pointed me to the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security — IGIS, which I have also called AGIS — and to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I was already shut out of the Ombudsman. The service-restriction letter of 8 August 2025 is the later official paper. A further letter of 6 February 2025, MC25-000321, sent the matters to the Victorian Minister for Police. Those were dead ends. They did not acknowledge the relationship.

I am well aware that I am on ASIO's books as what I call a targeted individual. I recorded my call to AGIS, who investigate ASIO, about the victimisation. In hindsight I say they were already committed to never helping me, and that they were used by my former fiancé, the ASIO employee Steve Iasonidis. No professional admits the five-year relationship even existed. I say that reveals Iasonidis as a key manipulator, with protection under David Irvine and the federal government. Hospitals have repeatedly force-injected me for what they called "ingrained delusions of persecution". That is my account of the call and of the treatment.

A FILE THAT DOES NOT AGREE WITH ITSELF

The significance of this file. The Department told the Commissioner that about 1,187 Outlook items were under review. Weeks later the decision said the documents cannot be found or do not exist. The revised decision then released five documents. That is the hypocrisy: a review of more than a thousand items, then a letter that no documents exist. It is the Department's own paper. It is not a court finding.

The same department has a freedom-of-information file that does not agree with itself. On 7 February 2022 I asked the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet for "all information government agencies hold on me please." On 16 March 2022 the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner wrote, reference RQ22/00794, that the Department had applied for more time because the request was voluminous and complex, and that approximately 1,187 Outlook items were being reviewed. That is more than a thousand items, in the Department's own account to the Commissioner. It is not, by that letter alone, a finding that 1,187 documents had been proved to be about me. On 14 April 2022 Petra Gartmann, Assistant Secretary, Legal Policy Branch, refused the same request under section 24A(1)(b), reference FOI/2022/045. The decision says all reasonable steps were taken, that no relevant documents were identified, and that the documents cannot be found or do not exist. On 8 October 2024 that refusal was revised. Laura Cameron, acting Assistant Secretary, reference FOI/2022/0451C, wrote that the Department holds five documents that meet the request and granted access to them, with some material deleted as irrelevant. On 4 November 2024 the Commissioner's office, MR22/00677, said it would ask the Department to resend that decision of 8 October 2024 and the five documents. Read them in that order.

One describes more than a thousand Outlook items under review. The next says the documents do not exist. The one after that releases five.

That is the hypocrisy in the Department's own file. It is not a court finding. An essay in this deposit uses the figure 1,178. The figure on the Commissioner's letter is about 1,187.

With those letters I place the undated letter addressed to the Prime Minister and to the Attorney-General, Mark Dreyfus, which is the letter I identify as the one answered by the referral to IGIS and the Ombudsman, and a further undated letter to the Office of Prime Minister and Cabinet. My email of 1 August 2024 on the review is with them. The typed copy of the 19 September 2023 reply is MC23-028244 as a PDF, beside the photograph already linked. A 111-page file whose filename says "prime minister apology" is not an apology from Anthony Albanese. Its first page is a commentary on this FOI file.

EXILE, HOSPITAL, LEGAL AID

I asked to be arrested so that my name could be tested in the ordinary way. No one came. No charge was laid against me. No criminal trial was commenced. I was left with the consequences of accusation without the process in which guilt or innocence is determined. I have been hospitalised in psychiatric institutions sixteen times. That number is my count. The hospital paper is the place I have written the conditions around those admissions: homelessness, designed poverty, and inaction by police and the legal profession. I am in exile. I am restricted from Legal Aid, which is a betrayal of the reason Legal Aid exists, and restricted from the Ombudsman. I have not placed a NACC restriction letter in this repository, so I do not pretend to link one.

THE CALLS

I could not even report being drugged and raped to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. I published the call in which I could not report being drugged and raped to the Ombudsman. I say it shows the blacklist and the stonewalling.

On 3 September 2023 I called the NACC after 90 days about my complaint, and they rejected me. I say that rejection is the Commission participating in the same refusal.

I published the call to the NACC after 90 days, in which my complaint was rejected. Danny Pearson, then the workplace minister, refused my phone call about workers' compensation.

I published the call that Danny Pearson, the workplace minister, refused to take about workers' compensation. Liz Lindberg of the Australian Human Rights Commission sided with Australian Super on the denial of compensation in what I say was a robbery of more than a million dollars of a settlement I was entitled to. I say she knew the conflict, acted in her role to betray a position the Commission had already taken, and then revoked it, so that TAL did not have to engage. In her professional capacity she free-kicked that settlement.

I published the call in which Liz Lindberg of the AHRC free-kicks a settlement of more than a million dollars. Tim Gos of AFCA was, as I say it, already committed to never giving me a way to resolve the financial conflicts. He blocked the path his role exists to keep open. I was later banned from AFCA.

I published the call to Tim Gos of AFCA, who blocked a determination of the financial complaint. Comcare and the AAT were, as I say it, already committed to denying a valid workers' compensation claim by accepting that I was blocked from Legal Aid. That is a breach of the reason those bodies exist. I was left to face a government-appointed lawyer, Kate Watson, without Legal Aid, and I have never been able to report a single crime to police. Scott Tredwell's letter on Federal Court letterhead records that he was satisfied I was an employee of DSS. The papers that said the opposite are still in the file. On 26 May 2021 Comcare declined claim 1326583/1 and put, as the first question, whether I was an employee under section 5 of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act. On 3 June 2021 Sarah LeMaire of the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission wrote: "This process does not make you an employee of the NDIS Commission." I say Tredwell's confirmation should have overturned the lesser finding of Comcare and the AAT that I was not an employee. It did not.

I published the call on Comcare and the AAT denying workers' compensation, and denying legal access.

OUTSIDE THE COUNTRY

I took the same record outside the country. The archive holds the OHCHR submission, reference UR/UST/23/AUS/17, and the claim of an International Criminal Court submission as part of the chronology of asking for protection. The reference is the document. It is not a finding by the United Nations.

WHAT I FILMED

My paranoia is a documented reality in this sense: here is what I recorded parked outside my squat in Footscray, about 2022. The video on my own channel is the secret service parked out the front of the Footscray squat. You cannot surveil a victim and call it a success when the victim films the people doing the surveillance. The gig is up. I say the V2K audio harassment was a mechanism of torture, and that this recording exposes it. The papers are the V2K review and the AHRC gang-stalking paper. The Commission used the term "gang stalking" in official correspondence to me, and the occurrence was then denied. I say that denial, against their own words, is the hypocrisy.

TONY RIDLEY

Tony Ridley, formerly a fraud investigator associated with the NDIS, is the man I recorded. I say he was deployed as a drug-affected honeypot, and that a former support worker of the same agency would have known I was an unprotected whistleblower. I recorded the encounter because he indicated he may have killed people. I later understood him to be a returned SAS soldier with a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance. The archive holds a credential exhibit in his name and the conversation PDF. I published the audio of that encounter to expose what I say was the corruption and to keep myself safe. What I put on the channel is the published audio of the Tony Ridley encounter. It backfired. His wife did not know he had sex with men. I say he then used a PhD in counter-terrorism surveillance to hunt me electronically across three states while I was fleeing, and that he knew I was an unprotected whistleblower. I say his conduct is criminal, and that it sits inside the long exile and the alleged assassination plot. No one has denied that account in a document in this archive, and no one has proved it wrong. I published the recording to protect both of us. He says I ruined his life. I say he then followed me electronically across three states, and that paid followers were used to intimidate me wherever I went. On my YouTube channel I described that meeting, named him as SAS, and invited people to listen to the later account in which I name Tony Ridley as SAS. I have not found a second watch address that is only the raw tape. The published page, the conversation PDF, and that video are what a reader can open today.

He told me there was a formal investigation whose aim was to discredit and destroy me. He revealed contact with my family, with the woman the messages call the regretted encounter, and knowledge of Alan, my younger partner, which he would not otherwise have had. He claimed it was easy to turn my sister Jodie Bongetti, my brother Brad McLean, my parents Doug and April McLean, and my uncle Bruce McMaster into alignment against me. I already knew the isolation. What he added was that the communication was deliberate. That is my account of what he said. It sits beside the recording record. It is not his signed statement.

ABLE POINT

The NDIS, through the provider Able Point, sent support workers who already knew my case and who did not change my circumstances. I say they reported me back into the same entrapment, inside the agency I had worked for, and into the same matter as the provider I was told had been sent to erase me. The papers are the Able Point notice and the letter to Brett. The Ben NDIS messages are where the provider contact, the NDA, the paid-discredit claim, and the hit claim sit side by side.

FAMILY

There was family betrayal from childhood. Members of my family attended the funeral of the person who sexually abused me as a child, days after he died, on the same day as the fatal injury. They protected him. I was the one called morally depraved. My family has excommunicated me. The excommunication was so obscene that I protested my homelessness in a video no one answered. I filmed it as a disabled man, homeless, from a paddock in Dandenong, while my blood family lived in comfort nearby. The recording, filmed while I was homeless in a Dandenong paddock, is the introduction for an affidavit and a statutory declaration. I believe they were positioned to benefit from my permanent erasure. That belief is testimony. The papers I have put with it are My erasure was by design and estate attorney and sibling betrayal. God, as I understand it, allowed the betrayal to show character. The day of reckoning is the day the evidence is public, not a sentence I am imposing.

WHAT SURVIVED

I was not expected to survive the exile, the homelessness, the isolation, the humiliation, the character assassination, the administrative annihilation, or the intimate and family betrayal. The tabs that set out that treatment are the Digital Apocalypse of Administrative Annihilation, the Architecture of Administrative Annihilation, the cost of erasure, and coordinated institutional mobbing. I survived. The evidence survived with me. They underestimated the God who kept me alive. You cannot erase what God has preserved. The documents are here. The correspondence is here. The text messages are here. The chronology is here. The decisions are here. The omissions are here.

The world can now read it. This archive is not only the story of what happened to me. It is the surviving record of what happened around me: what institutions recorded, what they did, what they failed to do, and what they cannot now pretend was never documented. The day of reckoning has arrived because the evidence has arrived. And I am still alive.

I gave every agency grace to treat me as they should. The grace I gave was spat on. All of them pretended they were not participating in my detrimental treatment. I am not revengeful. I believe the Bible says that vengeance is God's to have. The universe has, through this archive, now witnessed what was done to me. They still pretend they are unaware, or that they acted ethically, while pretending they were not cruel.

The same chronology is in the papers below. Each opens in a new window. Each is the document named. None of them is a finding.
