Subject:

Urgent Humanitarian Assistance Request – Political Exile and Critical Risk Situation

To: International Humanitarian Assistance Organization

Attention: Humanitarian Aid and Legal Protection Office

Date: December 1, 2025

Dear Sir or Madam,

I, Dr. Richard William McLean, am writing under extreme duress and in urgent need of humanitarian protection and emergency assistance. I am currently in political exile, trapped in a hotel room in Goulburn, NSW, Australia. My life is at risk due to sustained persecution, credible threats, and deliberate deprivation. I am currently starving and without safe access to food or financial support.

My PayID is rich@richmclean.com.au, and my contact number is +61 0431 167 907.

I urgently request humanitarian intervention, emergency relief, and safe relocation from qualified authorities or recognized aid organizations.

Background and Significance of the Attached Declaration

The attached document titled "Public Declaration of Divine Witness – The Testimony of Dr. Richard William McLean" serves as both spiritual evidence and public record of my persecution, advocacy, and moral mission.

It reflects over 35 years of systemic targeting, professional sabotage, defamation, and identity theft—all arising from my outspoken advocacy for truth, justice, and human rights. The declaration also represents a spiritual affirmation of purpose: that my suffering and endurance were part of a divine calling to assist and protect others facing injustice.

This testimony is not merely a religious expression; it constitutes a comprehensive witness statement demonstrating my eligibility for protection, asylum, and immediate humanitarian aid.

Current Situation

- I am isolated and physically trapped in temporary accommodation in Goulburn, NSW.
- I have no stable income, food, or security.
- My communication is restricted, and I am under constant psychological stress and risk.
- My long-standing documentation and public statements have made me a target of persecution by both institutional and private actors.

Given this context, I am in critical danger and require immediate intervention to prevent harm or further deprivation.

Request for Assistance

I respectfully request the following forms of humanitarian assistance:

1. Immediate contact by a recognized humanitarian or diplomatic representative.
 2. Emergency provision of food, safe housing, and medical support.
 3. Assessment and processing of my case for asylum, protection, or humanitarian relocation.
 4. Recognition of my Public Declaration as supporting evidence of persecution and spiritual mission.

Closing Statement

I remain steadfast in my moral and humanitarian calling to help others, even as I face persecution. I humbly ask for your urgent response and compassionate action to prevent loss of life and to enable my continued work in peace and safety.

Please acknowledge receipt of this message at your earliest opportunity.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Richard William McLean
